

Dental Crown Settlement

Notice ID

We assigned unique, nine-digit Notice IDs to all class members identified in 3M's records as having purchased Lava Ultimate Restorative dental blocks. The Notice ID appears on the top right corner of each page of the Class Notices that we mailed on 9/21/20. The image below shows where you can find your Notice ID on the Class Notice. If you do not have your Notice ID or cannot find it, contact the Claims Administrator at 1-888-529-3798 (toll-free).

Notice of Supplemental Claim Period

DENTAL CROWN SETTLEMENT

Read this notice carefully. Your legal rights may be affected whether you act or don't act right.

If you purchased Lava Ultimate Restorative CAD/CAM blocks made by 3M Company, placed those blocks as crowns before June 15, 2015, and had a patient who experienced any full or partial debonding of those crowns at any time from May 10, 2019 through September 7, 2020, you could get a payment from a $32.5 million class action settlement.

A court authorized this notice. This is not a solicitation from a lawyer.

You must submit a claim to get paid.

What's happened?	On September 11, 2019, the United States District Court for the District of Minnesota (the "Court") approved a class action settlement (the "Settlement") in a case called Bhatia, et al. v. 3M Company , File No. 0:16-cv-01304-DWF-DTS (the "Action"). The Action concerned whether Lava Ultimate Restorative blocks made by 3M Company ("3M") and sold to dentists and dental practices performed as warranted or represented when the blocks were milled and seated as dental crowns.
Didn't I already get a notice?	The Court previously sent you a notice on May 10, 2019 (the "Notice") because 3M's records indicated that you purchased Lava Ultimate Restorative dental blocks. That Notice explained your legal rights and options and provided instructions for how to file a claim requesting settlement benefits for any full or partial debonds your patients seated with Lava Ultimate Restorative dental crowns experienced and that you repaired or paid to have repaired on or before May 10, 2019. Claims related to debonds repaired during that period were due by August 8, 2019 and may no longer be submitted.
